DEWEY IS ON DECK.

Arrival of Flagship Olympia
After Her Long Voyage.

TWO DAYS AHEAD OF TIME.

Demonstration In the Bay In Honor of the Hero of Manila.

THE ADMIRAL'S SALUTE IS FIRED.

Notwithstanding the Early Coming of the Distinguished Commander, the Formal Reception at New York Will Occur
as Per Program.

New York, Sept. 26.—Much to the surprise of every one the Olympia with Admiral Dewey on board arrived off the Sandy Hook lightship at 5:55 a. m. There was a heavy mist on the sea and at first the marine observers were inclined to think the vessel sighted might be Rear Admiral Howison's flagship, the Chicago, hardly believing Dewey would arrive two days ahead of time. The doubt was soon cleared away, however, and as passing vessels recognized the flagship from Manila bay there was a continuous blowing of whistles in salute.

One of the first vessels to sight the Olympia was the passenger steamer Sandy Hook of the Sandy Hook line, which left Atlantic Highlands shortly after 7 a. m. for her New York dock. Just as she got well under way a war vessel was seen through the fog and passengers and crew headed by ADMIRAL DEWEY.

The Sandy Hook's captain gathered at the rail to read the new comer's name. To get near enough to do this the Sandy Hook changed her course and headed directly for the Olympia, blowing her whistle in salute as she did so. As soon as the name was made out, the Sandy Hook's passengers cheered with all their might and in a few moments an answering cheer came over the water from the warship's sailors, many of whom were gathered on deck. The flagship came up to the lower bay and anchored inside Sandy Hook. As soon as the anchor was dropped an orderly was sent ashore with dispatches from the admiral and other officers. He said the ship had had a pleasant trip across the Atlantic and that all on board were well and glad to be home again.

The Olympia crew were put to work cleaning ship. Many small vessels sailed around her.

The members of Admiral Dewey's family who are stopping at the Waldorf Astoria did not seem surprised at their distinguished relative's early arrival.

Charles Dewey, of Montpelier, Vt., the admiral's brother, said:

"This is not altogether unexpected as we thought the admiral would be here a couple of days before the celebration. Probably he desired to have a couple of days to get the ship in good condition for the celebration.

"None of the family will go down the bay now to see the admiral and none of us expects to before Thursday."

The admiral's early arrival was a matter of great concern to the city authorities who are arranging for New York's official welcome. Secretary Foster of the reception committee went to the city hall early and at once issued a call for a special meeting of the committee. Mr. Foster said he could not forecast the committee's action, but he thought it possible that the committee would go to the Olympia soon and meet the admiral.

Mayor Van Wyck at his office found the following telegram: "Olympia arrived this morning. Will go to Tompkinsville." GEORGE DEWEY.

The mayor advised the calling together of all the city's committees and telegrams were sent out calling on the members of the plan and scope committee and the various sub-committees to meet as quickly as possible at the city hall.

Mr. McKelway, chairman of the sub-committee, was the first to arrive. Mr. McKelway thought the reception committee would wait on Dewey and that Dewey would remain in the anchorage off Tompkinsville until Friday. Then the regular reception would take place on Friday and Saturday, according to the city's program.

The Sandy Hook steamer Monmouth passed the Olympia early and those on board of her were the first to see Admiral Dewey. One of the Monmouth's passengers said: "We saw Admiral Dewey quite plainly. He stood alone on the quarter deck of the ship. Fifteen feet behind him stood eight of his officers in uniform. The admiral alone of all the men on board ship acknowledged the cheers of the passengers and crew of the Monmouth. He raised his hat, continually bowing and smiling. The ship looked in fine trim, considering her long voyage, but the exterior of her hull was seamed with rusty streaks."

For the first time in many years an admiral's salute was fired in New York bay. Fort Hancock saluted with 17 guns when the Olympia passed, coming in.

Saw Admiral Dewey.

There was a demonstration of an official character in Rear Admiral Sampson's fleet off Tompkinsville when the news of the Olympia's arrival was received. Signals announcing Dewey's arrival were hoisted and there was considerable cheering, which, although a violation of the strict rules and regulations of the navy, was not officially noticed by the commanding officers. Later an admiral's salute was fired and Rear Admiral Sampson visited Admiral Dewey.

When the Olympia reached the upper bay Admiral Dewey found the quarantine station was decorated with 1,500 red, white and blue electric lights. On the terrace are letters nine feet high, spelling "welcome home." They are set against a natural background of green and show white in the day time and will be lighted with electricity at night.

When the arrival of the Olympia was made known the reception committee in this city at once communicated with Rear Admiral Philip at the Brooklyn navy yard and requested him to have all the mail which was awaiting the officers and crew of the Olympia at once conveyed to that vessel.

Rear Admiral Philip detailed Lieutenant Dewey, who is a nephew of the admiral and is attached to the receiving ship Vermont, to go upon the navy yard Traffic and proceed to Sandy Hook to meet the admiral. The tug carried besides the mail the Manila medals for the officers and crew and the silver service for the officers, presented by the town of Olympia, Washington, and the Dewey shield for the battleship.

Admiral Sampson, upon receiving the news off Tompkinsville, detailed his chief of staff, Captain Chadwick, of the cruiser New York, to go down to Sandy Hook, meet Admiral Dewey and confer with him as to what plans he has in view on account of his unexpected arrival before Thursday, the day set for the reception.

Rear Admiral Philip gave it as his opinion that there would be no change in the original plans for the naval parade or its attendant ceremonies. The unexpected early arrival of Admiral Dewey is likely to settle a difficulty between Governor Roosevelt and the city members of the Dewey committee, as the governor's plans in the matter were made for Thursday evening.

It was reported that the governor intended to anticipate the mayor's reception committee by going down the bay on a private yacht and be the first man to board the Olympia after her arrival. After many conferences between different members of the plan and scope committee in the city hall, President Guggenheimer of the municipal council telephoned each member of the reception committee to meet in the council chamber at 2:30 p. m. to arrange for a reception to Admiral Dewey later in the day.

The plan, as set forth by President Guggenheimer under impromptu arrangements made by the admiral's early and unexpected arrival, is that the original reception committee after the meeting will proceed by boat down the bay to where the Olympia lies anchored.

The reception committee's members are: St. Clair McKelway, Chauncey M. Depew, Levi P. Morton, Richard Croker, William McAdoo and Warren M. Foster.

"JOHN D. LONG."

Official Notice of Dewey.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The following has been received at the navy department from Admiral Dewey, dated Sandy Hook, N. J.: "Olympia will go to Tompkinsville." Tompkinsville is the anchorage for naval vessels in Staten island.

SEVEN FORTS

Destroyed by the Americans and Insurgents Are Routed.

Washington, Sept. 26.—A dispatch has been received from Manila by the war department, stating that General Snyder attacked the position of the insurgents five miles west of Cebu and destroyed seven forts and quite a number of smooth bore cannon. The insurgents were utterly routed and Snyder returned with his forces to Cebu. The Tennessee regiment which was already aboard the transport to come home, disembarked to take part in the engagement.

A Marvelous Escape.

Maryville, Mo., Sept. 26.—An Omaha-St. Louis train load of excursionists returning from the Omaha exposition were wrecked on a bridge over the Platte river here and miraculously escaped injury. The track spread just before the train passed upon the bridge and the rails were torn up. The bridge partially gave way and the engine and two coaches toppled over and fell in a short distance, landing on some of the under timbers. These proved strong enough to support them, and the passengers, badly frightened, were able to climb out of the windows and doors and reach solid ground uninjured.

To Oust Mayor Swartz.

Columbus, O., Sept. 26.—A formal application to oust by quo warranto proceedings Mayor Swartz from office for violating the Garfield "corrupt practice law" was made upon Attorney General Monnett. The affidavit charging that Swartz spent more than the law allows to secure his election was filed by James Williams.

Judge Nash Declines.

Columbus, O., Sept. 26.—Judge George K. Nash addressed a letter to Mayor S. M. Jones of Toledo, who has challenged him and all the other candidates for governor to debate the proposition that political parties have ceased to be useful or necessary, Jones taking the affirmative, declining the challenge on the ground that the question is not an issue of the campaign.

Venezuelan Revolution.

Ponce, Porto Rico, Sept. 26.—Advises received here from Caracas describe the situation in Venezuela as critical. The revolutionists are approaching Victoria, where the next battle will be fought. People desiring to proceed to Puerto Cabello, on the gulf of Triste, are not allowed to depart. The government is very unpopular and very suspicious.

Echo of the Gale.

St. Johns, N. F., Sept. 26.—The loss of another schooner is reported as the result of the recent gale. She foundered with six men, bringing the total loss of life up to 53. Reports from remote sections of the island confirm the fears as to an extensive destruction of shipping property. Vessels returning from northern Labrador are also badly damaged.

Why He Killed Himself.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Dr. Herman Wadsworth Hayley, 35, instructor of Latin in Wesleyan university and a member of the faculty, was found dead in his room in a hotel with his throat cut. He had committed suicide. He was one of the finest classical scholars in the country. Lately he had been haunted by a fear of losing his mind.

Chapelle Again Honored.

New Orleans, Sept. 26.—Archbishop Chapelle has received notification from the pope of his appointment as apostolic delegate for the Philippines. He is already apostolic delegate for Cuba and Porto Rico, besides being archbishop of New Orleans.

Rioting at Terol.

Ferrol, Spain, Sept. 26.—There has been renewed rioting here. The strikers, with women and children, attacked the men at work in the arsenal here. Stones were thrown and revolver shots were fired. The gendarmes charged and dispersed the mob.

EIGHTEEN WATCHMEN

Caught In a Burning Skyscraper Without Discovering Flames.

New York, Sept. 26.—Fire did $50,000 damage in the nine-story Robinson building bounded by Broadway, Division and Gouverneur streets. Although there were 18 watchmen in the building the flames were discovered issuing from a third story window first by a policeman. When they learned their building was on fire, the 18 watchmen stumbled out of doors in a mad rush for safety. One watchman, Frederickstein, said that there were still two watchmen in the building, he could not give their names.

Will Release Prisoners.

Manila, Sept. 26.—The two Englishmen who assert that they were shipwrecked in a small open boat near Bigan at the north end of Luzon brought a message from the insurgent general, Pantelon Garcia, that 14 American prisoners who are now held at Tarlac will be released on Tuesday or Wednesday. The delay in releasing these prisoners, as promised several days ago, is due to the fact that the Filipinos wish to furnish the men with new clothing when they set them free. The Englishmen stated further that Lieutenant J. C. Gilmore and the captured boat's crew from the Yorktown are still at Bigan, but will be released later in accordance with the decision of the Filipino congress and the subsequent decree of Aguinaldo providing for the surrender of all American prisoners. The admitted purpose of the Filipinos in thus freeing the Americans is to impress foreign powers.

With the President.

Washington, Sept. 26.—All the members of the cabinet attended the meeting except Secretaries Hay and Gage. The meeting was entirely devoid of results. A few routine matters were taken up and the dispatch of Admiral Watson announcing the details of the loss of the gunboat Urdaneta was read. The arrangements for the Dewey reception and sword presentation in this city were gone over and the details for the president's western trip were discussed. The president will be accompanied by Mrs. McKinley and the members of the cabinet. They will leave here October 4, the morning after the Dewey dinner at the White House, and will be gone about two weeks.

Griggs Replies to Pingree.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Attorney General Griggs has written a reply to a letter recently received from Governor Pingree of Michigan. He says in part: "I am in receipt of your letter of the 21st instant asking me to send you a copy of my 'opinion to the effect that under the constitution of the United States congress can not enact a law which would be effective in suppressing trusts, so-called.' In reply I beg to say that I have never rendered either officially or unofficially any opinion of this kind. On the contrary, this department has been engaged in bringing numerous suits in the United States courts under the Sherman anti-trust act of July 2, 1890."

Hanna Nearly Wrecked.

Middleport, O., Sept. 26.—The south-bound train on the Hocking Valley railroad, carrying Senator Mark Hanna and Colonel Nevins to Middleport, where they make speeches, had a very narrow escape from being wrecked at Addison. It was approaching the situation at a terrific rate of speed when a rail broke, splintering the floor of the smoker. However, it occurred on a curve and this is all that saved the train.

Great Sacrifice of Lives.

Calcutta, Sept. 26.—No rain has fallen since last reports in the vicinity of Darjeeling, in the lower Himalaya, where on Sunday night great damage was wrought and many persons were killed by earthquakes, floods and landslides. During the night, however, other landslides occurred. The Phool Bazaar was completely overwhelmed and 200 persons lost their lives.

After Dewey.

Milwaukee, Sept. 26.—Henry C. Payne will leave for New York for the purpose of extending an invitation adopted by the common council of Milwaukee to Admiral Dewey to visit Milwaukee at the same time President McKinley will be here. Mr. Payne will meet the admiral in a chartered steamer.

Meeting of Presbyterians.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Presbyterians from all over the world are arriving here to attend the Pan-Presbyterian council which opens its sittings at the New York Avenue Presbyterian church. Upwards of 400 delegates are expected to be in attendance upon this, the seventieth general council.

Rev. Haig has sued the city of Columbus, O., for $8,000, claiming the mission was wrecked on account of the smallpox.

ON NEW YORK CENTRAL

A Head-End Collision Occurs, Killing
Several People.

FREIGHT TRAIN WAS LATE.

Responsibility For the Accident Has Not Been Determined but Passenger Train Had the Right of Way.

Auburn, N. Y., Sept. 26.—A head-end collision between a New York Central Passenger train and a freight train occurred at 6 a. m. just west of Old Flat bottom bridge about a mile west of the city, and as a result four people are dead, two fatally injured and four seriously injured.

The dead are Emmet Lanctot of Rochester, engineer on the freight train; J. Curry of Rochester, fireman on the freight train; James E. King of Skaneateles; R. J. Frew of Geneva, baggageman on the passenger train.

Thomas Dugan, engineer on the passenger train, was fatally injured.

Others injured were S. J. Ludolph of Rochester, brakeman on the freight train, both legs broken and otherwise injured. Byron Nellis of Geneva, fireman on the passenger train; C. A. Martin of Geneva, conductor on the passenger train; Charles Perrons of Geneva, trainman on the passenger.

The responsibility for the accident has not yet been determined, but the freight train which is due in the city at 1:55 a. m., was running on the time of the passenger train and this fact was known to Conductor George Elghme of Rochester, who had charge of the freight when he ordered his train to leave Aurelius.

Recall of General Otis.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Coincident with the near approach of Admiral Dewey, the rumors about General Otis' recall have been revived. It is again reported that his recall has actually been decided upon. There has also been a rumor lately that General Brooke was to leave Cuba shortly and as it is now said that a major general is to be sent to the Philippines there is some disposition to regard that as General Brooke's future berth. The basis for all this gossip seems to be the report that Admiral Dewey has a poor opinion of General Otis.

Felt the Earthquake.

Washington, Sept. 26.—A report received by the coast survey shows that the earthquake recently reported in Yakutat bay was also felt in Prince William's sound. At Orca the shocks recurred at half-hour intervals, beginning at 2:40 p. m. mean local time on Sunday, Sept. 3. They were still continuing at 8 p. m. on that day when the report closed. No damage was reported.

Additional Subscriptions.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Additional subscriptions to the Dewey home fund have been received by Assistant Secretary Vanderlip as follows: Joseph Pulitzer of New York, $1,000; Senator H. W. Corbett of Oregon, $500; Senator James McMillan of Michigan, $500; S. Brown of New York, $100; Jules Fleischmann of New York, $200; Hartley and Graham of New York, $200.

Cadet Wood Killed.

Washington, Sept. 26.—A dispatch has been received at the navy department from Admiral Watson, saying that he is informed through insurgent sources that Naval Cadet Welborn O. Wood was killed in the action when the gunboat was captured by the insurgents. Wood was appointed from Georgia and had not yet graduated from the naval academy.

Mining Engineers.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—The American Institute of Mining Engineers, which attracted the most eminent and progressive miners of the country to this city, opened here. There are about 200 accredited delegates.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The Mexican ambassador, Senor Azpiroz, has received a dispatch from the secretary of the state of Mexico confirming the press advices to the effect that President Diaz will not attend the coming celebration at Chicago.

DOUBLED THE PRICES.

That's What the Glass Combine Has Done, Although it Had Just Cleared 100 Per Cent. Profit in a Year.

[New York World.]
 And now comes the window glass trust, the latest and most perfect of all trusts. It is the beau ideal, before which all other trusts must bow down and worship; for what they humbly strive after in vain it accomplishes at a leap at the very outset of its existence.
 It has raised prices 100 per cent.
 It has cleared 100 per cent profit in a single year.
 Such is the astonishing, world-beating record of the American Window Glass Company of Pittsburgh, which is now being transformed from a pool into a trust.
 All the big window glass jobbers in New York have been invited to take stock, and as many of them as can scrape together the money are doing so with alacrity.
 The present plan is to fix the capital of the window glass trust at $17,000,000, according to circulars received here yesterday from McMullin and Given, the Pittsburgh promoters, but there is a proviso for increasing the stock so as to take in all the independent manufacturers.
 Furthermore, it is proposed to raise the prices still higher. Indeed, prices are likely to advance any day, because no window glass has been made since last May, when the furnace fires were extinguished, and it is not expected that the trust can perfect its organization and rekindle the furnace fires before November. Meanwhile the factories have only small stocks on hand, and the large jobbers are quietly looking for a "corner" which will enable them to double present prices and enable them to pocket hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The Synod of Kentucky, Presbyterian Church, South, will convene in Danville Tuesday, October 17th.

Glorious News
 Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewster of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists. Guaranteed.

THE RECORDS.

Senator Goebel Produces the Proof in the Hallam Case.

The Imprisonment Was at New Orleans on a Charge of Larceny.

Senator Goebel spoke to a large and enthusiastic crowd at Versailles Monday and during his speech brought up and emphatically disposed of a subject which has been widely discussed in the anti-Goebel press. Senator Goebel recalled the fact that a speaker for the bolters had made an attack upon him and members of his family, some of whom had been twenty years in their graves. This speaker had referred offensively to Senator Goebel's brothers, both of whom are substantial and respected business men in Cincinnati. Senator Goebel had, in reply, stated that he, at least, had never had a brother in the penitentiary.

An effort has been made to establish the belief that Senator Goebel meant by this statement to charge disgrace to the fact that a Confederate soldier had been confined as a prisoner of war in a Northern penitentiary. "I do not believe," said Senator Goebel, "that personalities such as this should have any place in a campaign where great and important issues are involved, but I want the people of Kentucky to know that when I made that statement I knew exactly what I was talking about. I have declared that I did not refer to a prisoner of war. Mr. John W. Caldwell, Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge and many others have insistently called upon me to furnish the evidence for my statement, and I want to do it."

Senator Goebel then read a sworn copy of the record of the First District Court for the Parish of New Orleans, stating that the man to whom he referred had on the 10th day of December, 1863, with intent to steal, broken into and entered the office of P. M. Gill in that parish, and had stolen certain law books valued at about $100 and a coat valued at $10. He also read certified copies of the testimony of witnesses in the case.

B. R. Forman, one of the three attorneys occupying the office, testified that the accused had been introduced to him as J. R. Hallam, son of a lawyer of Newport, Ky., that the accused had tried to induce him to cash a check purporting to be signed by General L. H. Rousseau, that he had refused to cash the check, that the accused had remained in the office all of the afternoon, and that when he (the witness) left the office the accused had observed the hiding place of the key of the office door. The witness also testified that on the following morning the books and coat were missing. P. M. Gill, another attorney occupying the office, testified that the accused had spent several hours in the office, and that he had met the accused in the street after the theft was committed, wearing the coat stolen from the office.

Senator Goebel also read the entries on the back of the Court records, showing that the accused had been indicted for breaking and entering with intent to steal and for larceny, that he had entered a plea of not guilty; that he had been found guilty of larceny and recommended to the mercy of the court, and that he had been sentenced to serve four months in the parish prison.

"I have been forced to make this disclosure in self-defense," said Senator Goebel. "This is the end of the matter as far as I am concerned."

"I never assail a man unless he first assails me. I have always avoided controversies where I could, but whenever I have got into one I have dealt the best blow I could." [Cheers and applause.]

The BULLETIN's Washington correspondent commenting on the above says:

"We happen to know both of the gentlemen intimately whose testimony Senator Goebel brings forward in support of his assertions, and can testify that no better known nor more influential men reside in New Orleans than they. And, furthermore no more gallant soldiers were to be found in the Confederate army than these same affiants in Mr. Goebel's interest. No man would be farther than they from upholding a false charge against a brother Confederate, yet it would be hard to find two men who would be farther from shielding any from righteous indignation and punishment, be he Confederate soldier or what not, than Benjamin Rice Forman, formerly of Kentucky, and P. M. Gill, a native of Mississippi, both for many years residents of New Orleans."

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—The earthquakes which shook up the Alaskan coast early in September made themselves felt miles at sea. Three vessels which have arrived from the northern salmon fisheries report experiencing most peculiar weather on Sunday, Sept. 3, the day of the first of the tremblings. Captain Charles Johnson of the bark B. P. Cheney, which was at sea almost opposite Kodiak at the time of the disturbance, states that on September 3 heavy gale sprang up, the air being very sultry. The barometer fell rapidly, but in about 15 minutes the wind fell and the sea quieted down.

Have You a Match?

A man whose feet do not track stopped us on the street the other day and said: "The phenomenal good health of smokers is not due to tobacco alone. Smokers carry matches loose in their pockets and it is the sulphur on the matches that surrounds the body with an aura of protection. What smoke and sulphur won't do in the way of killing microbes is not worth mentioning." We offer this for the benefit of the old chronics who "can stop smoking any time they want to," but who never bump up against the time when they want to.—Denver Road.

DR. ARCHIBALD CHURCH,

One of the Joint Authors of a Valuable Work on Nervous and Mental Diseases.

A recent number of The Medical Fortnightly, a valuable and well known journal of its kind, published in St. Louis and whose endorsement of any publication is the highest possible guarantee of its merit, contains a handsome notice of a work that must certainly prove of great interest and value in medical circles. "Church and Peterson's Work on Nervous and Mental Diseases," a volume containing several hundred pages and splendidly illustrated, is the book referred to. Dr. Archibald Church, one of the authors of this work, an eminent specialist of Chicago, is known and already holds a high place in the high esteem and admiration of many of our readers, and we take pleasure in reproducing the Fortnightly article:

American text-books of medicine have felt the effects of the spirit of higher medical education. This is shown in the thoroughness of preparation, the careful attention to minute details and authentic references. Shop-worn statements handed down from author to author have disappeared, and now only well proved assertions are admissible. We have in Church and Peterson's Work on Nervous and Mental Diseases (a text-book of joint authorship) a truly thorough work essentially American and representative, we believe, of American teachings. Especially does the foregoing remark apply to the work of Archibald Church on nervous diseases. It is the most valuable treatise for the student that has yet appeared in the English language. It is concise, but replete with the facts of neurology so stated as to be readily understood. In teaching medicine elaboration is not to be thought of, but clear, direct statements reinforced by sufficient of the details, clinical or theoretical, to present an unclouded picture, is to be desired. Dr. Church in his plan of book-making, has adopted this worthy feature, and essentials, details and principles are conspicuous throughout his admirable text. It is a credit to American medicine, and especially Western medicine, that such a high standard is set for the work of students.

Dr. Church married Miss Finch, the elder daughter of Mrs. Bettie M. Finch, of "Maplewood," this county.

SENATOR GOEBEL was the guest of Hon. Charles B. Poyntz last night and went to Flemingsburg this morning where he and Captain Blackburn speak this afternoon.

A CONSIGNMENT of fat "black" cattle sold at $6.85 in Chicago a few days ago. Referring to this top price, the Breeder's Gazette says: "There is cause for congratulation among feeders in view of the fact that while this outside price has only been paid in one instance a sufficient number of other sales have been made close up to such figures of late to demonstrate continuance of a market full of encouragement for those who are fitting good cattle yet to come forward."

A NEW high-class farce comedy will be given at the opera house Saturday night, September 30th. It is called "A Bell Boy," comes directly from New York City and is one of the new lively farce comedy extravaganzas of the year. The company is made up of some of the foremost comedy entertainers before the public, including John D. Gilbert, John Gilroy, Joseph L. Treacy, Harry B. Norman, Anna Clay, Ada Rich Collette, Vera Markie, Walter Van Allen, Tom Springer, R. J. Rale, Marks Smith, The Trans-Atlantic Quartette and ten others of ability. The play is said to be immensely funny from start to finish. The lines and situations cause the heartiest laughter, the special handsome settings bring forth expressions of admiration, and the audience cannot help being charmed with the melodious musical numbers. The verdict after witnessing the performance of "A Bell Boy" is invariably "a big success." It goes from here to Cincinnati.

Mr. Corbett To Speak at Court House Tonight.

Mr. Hal Corbett, of Paducah, will speak at court house to-night at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Corbett is said to be an eloquent talker and comes in the interest of Hon. John Young Brown.

The public invited. Seats reserved for the ladies.

THE C. and O. train No. 1, due at 6:10 a. m., was several hours late Tuesday morning, passing here at noon. The delay was caused by an accident at Greenbrier, Va., where the train ran into a fast freight on a siding and wrecked three coaches, killed one colored man and slightly injured the engineer, fireman and expressman. The leg of a passenger in a rear sleeper was broken, and one car-load of cattle and one car-load of sheep were killed. An unknown party had opened the switch.

The temperature was down to 34° in his city this morning. Out on the hills it was a few degrees lower, ice being reported. Some tobacco was still in the field, and this has no doubt been damaged.

WANTED choice milling wheat, at the "Old Gold" mills.
